Paris, June 23.

THE King does not remove to Verſailles till the Middle of Auguſt next. On the 21ſt Inſtant, the Duke of Orleans returned to the Palace Roval, and in the Evening the laſt new Tragedy called Ines de Caſtro, written by M. de la Motte, a Member of the French Academy, was performed there before a numerous Auditory. M. de la Jonchere who is Priſoner in the Baſtille was Yeſterday brought to his own Houſe, to be preſent at the taking off the Seals put there at his firſt Commitment, after which he was carried back to Priſon; 'tis ſaid, that the Red Ribon which he uſed to wear in Quality of Treaſurer to the Order of St. Lewis, has been demanded of him, and that his Employment of Treaſurer-General of the Extraordinaries at War, will be given to M. de Betz, Farmer-General. Yeſterday in the Afternoon M. de Morville, Secretary of State for Marine Affairs, was admitted a Member of the French Academy in the Room of the late Abbot Dangeau, and the Speech he made on that Occaſion was generally applauded; M Mallet, Chancellour of the Academy who officiates for the Mareſchal de Villars as Director, anſwered M. Morville's Speech, and the Cardinal du Bois, together with a great Number of Perſons of Diſtinction, were preſent at the Aſſembly. His Eminency had ſome ſlight Returns of his Fever on Sunday laſt, but came hither from Meudon on the 21ſt, and returned thither Yeſterday about Six in the Evening. The Duke of Orleans likewiſe returned thither Yeſterday in the Evening.

Hague, June 25 The States General have cauſed a Placard to be puoliſhed, by which the Subjects of theſe Provinces are forbid under the ſevereſt Penalties to contribute by Subſcription, or otherwiſe, towards the Eſtabliſhment of an Eaſt-India Company in the Auſtrian Netherlands. Prince William of Heſſe is ſick of a Fever at Amſterdam. The King of Pruſſia is ſhort expected at Cleves, and 'tis reported that his Majeſty deſigns to make a Tour to theſe Provinces.
